Abbeycrest Nursing Home offers exceptional residential, nursing and dementia care for up to 70 elderly people. You can find them in the village of Sonning Common in the heart of the Chilterns.

Commitment to care

Abbeycrest is ideally equipped to provide residential support for elderly people living with different types of dementia – including Alzheimer’s disease, vascular dementia and Korsakoff’s syndrome. The Care Team never loses sight of the fact that, first and foremost, Abbeycrest is their residents’ home.

Abbeycrest can provide trial stays, short stay and convalescent care, as well as long-term care. They always encourage residents to personalise their rooms with important personal possessions.

Abbeycrest provides residents with a full Care Pathway – with a full suite of residential, nursing and dedicated dementia care available. This means that residents can feel confident in the knowledge that their home can cater for them both now, and in the future if their care needs were to change.

Specialist dementia care

Dementia care provision at Abbeycrest has been designed to meet the University of Stirling’s standards, which are widely acknowledged as providing the best environment for people living with dementia. Stirling’s Dementia Services Development Centre is renowned as the world leader in this field.

By using the Stirling approach Abbeycrest can ensure that residents are able to move freely around the home, with bedrooms and communal areas appropriately laid out and clearly signposted to minimise confusion or disorientation. Each bedroom features a memory box by its front door, where mementos from residents’ lives help to personalise their rooms, as well as to remind visitors and the Care Team of each resident’s life story.

Memory Café Fridays from 2.30 pm -4 pm For carers and those with Dementia or Alzheimer's

Sonning Common Carers Group. Meet 2nd Wednesday of the month from 2 pm-3.30 pm. Contact Sue Devine on 07468 862177

Thames Valley Police Herbert Protocol Phone number: 101 Website: https://www.thamesvalley.police.uk/police-forces/thames-valley-police/areas/au/about-us/the-herbert-protocol/	The Herbert Protocol initiative is named after George Herbert, a war veteran of the Normandy landings, who lived with dementia. It is a process to be used where there is a risk that a vulnerable person, particularly if suffering from dementia, may go missing. It consists of a form for recording key information which the police will require if the vulnerable person goes missing. Carers, family members and friends should complete part one of the form in advance, and obtain a recent photograph of the vulnerable person. In the event of the vulnerable person going missing, part two should be completed, and the form plus photograph handed to the police. The form can be used for any vulnerable person, not just those with dementia.

Research Projects

These are current projects which you can join and thus aid research into prevention and treatment of Dementia

Kings College London Maria Megalogeni, PROTECT Study co-ordinator Phone number: 0207 848 8183 Email: admin@protectstudy.org.uk Website: www.protectstudy.org.uk	The PROTECT Study is an exciting opportunity to take part in a major UK research study. It aims to understand what happens to our brains as we age. You can take part in the study if: You are aged 50 or over You reside in the United Kingdom You have not been diagnosed with dementia. PROTECT is run by the Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College London.
OxDare Oxford Dementia and Aging Research Email: oxdare@psych.ox.ac.uk Phone number 01865 283806 Website: https://www.oxdare.ox.ac.uk/	OxDARE brings together diverse groups who are involved in dementia and ageing research across Oxford's departments and Institutes. The main aims of OxDARE are to support and connect Oxford's biomedical research community, as part of the Older Adults and Dementia theme of The National Institute for Health Research (NIHR) Biomedical Research Centre (BRC), and to engage the public through educational events and research opportunities. We work closely with the local Oxford Alzheimer's Research UK network (ARUK) on many of our activities and events. To find out more about how you can get involved with Oxford Dementia and Ageing Research, please visit the relevant pages on the website.
PREVENT Study To find out more, visit www.joindementiaresearch.nihr.ac.uk or call the Dementia Research Infoline on 0300 111 5 111.	Aims of the Study In recent years it has been recognised that dementia is probably a very late consequence of Alzheimer's disease, or other neurodegenerative diseases, which may have been present in people for up to 20 or 30 years before symptoms show. The aim of the PREVENT programme, therefore, is to identify the very earliest signs of these diseases, so that meaningful interventions can be put in place to try and stop the disease progressing to the point where dementia develops.

Finally...

As one of the organisers of 'Matters of Memory Day' I compiled this booklet. It is intended to help those with Dementia and their carers find local information.

It may not be exhaustive but I would be happy to update or correct any omissions if necessary, please email: sue.HAT1999@gmail.com
